

Justice in Action -- Immigration Training

Our Justice in Action Projects are pro bono efforts to continue the thinking and dialogue from the Children's Rights Summit. Baker McKenzie will partner with in-house attorneys looking to engage in any Justice in Action projects.

What? Representation of mothers, children, and other individuals seeking asylum from their home countries because they are fleeing persecution. We will also learn other immigration remedies for people who qualify for visas as victims of crime, or trafficking.

Why? Because thousands of people need lawyers and are facing immigration courts alone.

When? This Friday, December 7th from 8:30 am to 5 pm at Baker McKenzie (660 Hansen Way, Palo Alto, CA 94304). Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

How? Cases can be selected from a variety of different time commitments and duration of cases. They range from a few hours a month to representation in a full asylum case over the course of a year. We can find cases to fit the team's availability and schedule.

Who? Co-hosted with Tahirih Justice Center and Santa Clara Valley Association of American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA).
